

you to write to San Francisco. If I go by water I will telegraph on what steamer and in that event write to San Francisco to the care of Osborn & Sessions.

you say you were once a paid that I would love Hannie better than Anna. What made you think so. I never knew which I loved most. I thought Hannie the quickest and smartest but little Anna was always the best, and smart enough for any one to love. Hannie was good enough for a child. Hence I had no fault to find with either of them.

I have a very pleasant breeding house and two very good room maids, but some one a few nights ago stole one of my socks and the boys accuse me of leaving it in the kitchen division. If it is there they took it there and perhaps found it at the entrance of the gate of Egypt. If I should dream of Egypt you must not laugh any more over it than I did at your poetry. I have written several letters <sup>and sent them</sup> by steamer and I will send this over for luck.

Yours affectionately

B. F. Sewell

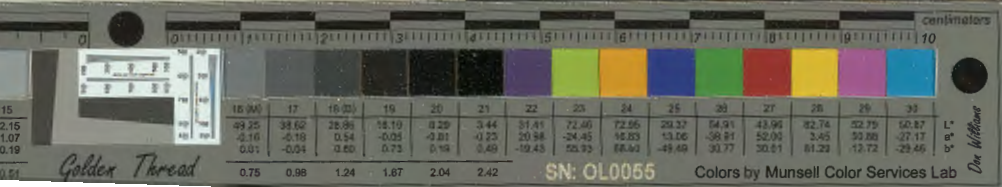

United States Senate Chamber.

Washington 24 Feb. 1868

Dear Anna:

I have just received your favor of the 20th describing the delivery of my letter to Mr. Sutton. I hope here the subject may forever rest. Sutton disclaims any design to injure me or Mr. Keating or you and says he knew nothing about any thing, & calls the caps which was opened. I suppose it was his copperhead deputy that opened the package. They are delighted to get hold of any thing to make political capital and to bolster up their lying tongues and filthy sheet.

Little Anna prays to kiss papa and bring him home & since she loves him. Kiss her and tell her papa will surely come as soon as he completes his business. The impeachment will probably delay business for one month, in impeachment next in Congress and one other month in the departments, but I am glad of the impeachment. You will find my reasons as you see.

for this in my last letter is the Sentinel and one which I will write tomorrow.

I inclose a letter from Maria Anne E. Daulton of Travellers Leap, Louisa county Virginia. She is a daughter of my mother's brother, Richd. She likes the children's photographs, but I have none to send her.
Get Brittle to send me a few. I sent her 10 days ago your photograph which I received several days ago.

I return the pictures on the envelopes to the children, and the letters I have filed for future reference. To show you how impudent negro workwomen are in Washington I inclose a note from one of them requiring me to pay for friend W. R. Kincaid's washing. However he paid it and we removed our washing to an other house, where our credit is better. I also found an account of Muller & Co. which I return.

Wishing to hear from you frequently I remain yours truly

B. F. Semple.
